FIGURE 8.11  Geologic cross section for relative age analysis. Place letters on the lines along the right side of the cross section to indicate the relative ages of the rock units and other features (unconformities, faults), from oldest (first) to youngest (last).

FIGURE 8.12  Geologic cross section for relative age analysis. Place letters on the lines along the right side of the cross section to indicate the relative ages of the rock units and other features (unconformities, faults), from oldest (first) to youngest (last).
FIGURE 8.9 Geologic cross section for relative age analysis. Place letters on the lines along the right side of the cross section to indicate the relative ages of the rock units and other features (unconformities, fault), from oldest (first) to youngest (last).

FIGURE 8.10 Geologic cross section of the Grand Canyon for relative age analysis. Place letters on the lines along the right side of the cross section to indicate the relative ages of the rock units and unconformities, from oldest (first) to youngest (last).